

DANA LIGHTMAN, Ph.D.

Absolutely. Positively. Uplifting.

“Create the outcomes you want. Regardless of the circumstances.”

POWER OPTIMISM

Dana’s motivational message puts her audience on an upward spiral.

Practice Power Optimism and you will:

- Feel confident and secure
- Possess more energy
- Reach greater potential
- Enjoy happier relationships
- Realize better health
- Do better in work and school

The desire exists within each of us to create the life we want, but events keep getting in the way. POWER Optimism teaches that your reaction to an event is more important than the event itself. It shows you how to replace negative interpretations and patterns with positive expectations and actions—intentional choices that are certain to put your life on an upward spiral of success.

DANA LIGHTMAN

Speaker, Author, Psychotherapist

Dana embodies the positive energy, personal insight and empowerment that are hallmarks of her POWER Optimism system. Through her own personal struggles, she learned firsthand the transformational power derived from shifting to an optimistic attitude.

Dana combined these personal insights with her psychotherapy training, work with clients and dissertation research to create the POWER Optimism system. Her dynamic conference and seminar appearances have inspired thousands to see their potential—not just the situation they’re in.

Dana is the author of POWER Optimism: Enjoy the Life You Have...Create the Success You Want, published in 2004.
